SHORT RATE PENALTY FOR EARLY CANCELLATION

If you decide to cancel your policy, we'll send you a refund based on the premium you already paid, the amount we've earned to date, and the Short Rate Penalty for early cancellation.

The Short Rate Penalty is based on the number of days your policy has been in force:

- Policies in force for 1-180 days will have a 7% Short Rate Penalty
- Policies in force for 181-270 days will have a 4% Short Rate Penalty
- Policies in force for 271-365 days will have a 2% Short Rate Penalty

EXAMPLE:

Let's say you've paid an annual premium of $1,000 and then decided to cancel your policy 190 days after the policy effective date. At that time, we would have earned 52% of the total premium and the Short Rate Penalty would be 4%. This means we would retain 56% of the total premium and you would receive a refund for the remaining 44%. In other words, we would send you a refund for $440.

Annual premium example:	$1,000
Premium earned at 190 days:	$520
4% Short Rate Penalty at 190 days:	$40
Total refund for this example:	$440

HOMEOWNER'S ENHANCED POLICY

YOUR COVERAGE OVERVIEW

Major Renovation

There is no coverage while your house is under major renovation if loss or damage is caused by vandalism, malicious acts, glass breakage or water damage, unless the Major Renovation Permit is added to your policy.

Vacant house

There is no coverage under this policy when your house has, to your knowledge, been vacant for more than 30 consecutive days. Even if your house has, to your knowledge, been vacant for less than 30 consecutive days, or if we issued a vacancy permit to you, there is no coverage for loss arising directly or indirectly from vandalism, malicious acts, glass breakage, or water damage.

HOMEOWNER'S ENHANCED POLICY

DETAILS OF YOUR COVERAGE

Our commitment to you

We will provide the insurance described in this policy in return for payment of the premium shown on the Policy Declaration Page(s).

All amounts of insurance, premiums, and other amounts referenced in the policy are in Canadian currency.

The Policy Declaration Page(s) summarizes the coverages and amounts of insurance that we have agreed to provide you and the period for which we provide them to you. If we broaden coverage under this policy form during your policy term, you will receive the benefits immediately at no additional cost.

How to read your policy

Please read the policy carefully to determine your coverage, your rights, and your responsibilities.

Your policy is written in simple language so that it is easy to understand. It is part of a legal contract between the named insured and us and consists of:

- Your Policy Declaration Page(s);
- This "Details of Your Coverage" (policy form);
- Optional endorsements to this policy form, where specifically shown on your Policy Declaration Page(s); and
- Provincial Statutory Conditions.

This policy form consists of three sections:

- Section I — Property Coverage, which describes the insurance coverage provided for your property;
- Section II — Liability Coverage, which describes the insurance coverage provided for your legal liability to others and includes certain voluntary payment options; and
- Section III — General Conditions, which describes conditions which apply to Sections I and II.

Reference to a key term as indicated by quotation marks around the term will include a definition. For each reference to the key term, that same meaning is applied throughout this policy.

"You" or "your"

By "you" and "your," we mean those people identified as Named Insureds on the Policy Declaration Page(s) and the following people, each of whom is an "Insured":

- The Named Insured's spouse, as defined by law applicable in the province where the insured premises is located, while living in the Named Insured's household;
- The Named Insured's relatives, and any people under the age of majority in the Named Insured's care, while living in the Named Insured's household;
- Any student attending school, college, or university that is dependent upon the Named Insured for support, even if temporarily living away from the premises;
- The Named Insured's parents, or relatives in the Named Insured's legal guardianship, if residing in a long-term care home; and
- The Named Insured's unmarried partner, over the age of majority, that cohabits with the Named Insured.

In addition, for Section II — Liability Coverage only, "you" or "your" also includes the following:

- A residence employee while acting in the course of their employment by any Insured, if their duties are to perform household or domestic services in connection with the maintenance or use of the house. This does not include persons while performing duties in connection with your business;
- Any person legally liable for damages arising out of the use, operation or care of a watercraft or animal owned by any Insured and to which this insurance applies. This definition does not include anyone using or having custody of the watercraft or animal in the course of any business or without permission given by an Insured;
- Any Insured's executor or power of attorney having custody of insured premises, but only with respect to liability arising out of ownership, use, or occupancy of the premises or other property insured by this policy;
- Any Insured who, at the time of the Named Insured's death, continues to live in the insured premises; or
- If the insured premises is situated on leased land, the owner of the leased land, but only with respect to liability arising solely and directly out of the Named Insured's ownership, use, or occupancy of the premises.

HOMEOWNER'S ENHANCED POLICY

DETAILS OF YOUR COVERAGE

If you are a "legal entity," such as a corporation, partnership, or society, by "you" and "your," we strictly mean the legal entity, and not the legal entity's officers, directors, shareholders, individual partners, members, employees, or agents.

"Us", "we", or "our"

By "us," "we," or "our," we mean the Company or Insurer providing insurance under this policy form.

"Premises" and "house"

By "premises," "your premises," or "the premises," we mean the insured premises listed on your policy's Declaration Page(s).

By "house," "your house," or "the house," we mean a permanent structure occupied as a personal residence on the premises, including attached structures, permanently installed outdoor equipment, and outdoor domestic water containers, including swimming pools, hot tubs, saunas and attached equipment on the premises.

SECTION I – PROPERTY COVERAGE

What are you insured against?

We insure you against "insured events," which are all risks of direct physical loss or damage to insured property, subject to the terms, conditions, and exclusions of this policy.

Coverage A — House

Coverage A applies to the house on your premises.

Coverage A also applies to materials and supplies to be used in construction, renovation, or repair of your house, but only while located on your premises. Coverage for theft will only apply to these items while your house is occupied or when construction is complete.

Coverage B — Detached structures

Coverage B applies to structures on or attached to your premises that are incidental to your house. These include garages and garden sheds, docks, piers, and wharves. If these structures are connected to your house by means of a fence, utility line, or similar connection, we still consider them to be detached structures.

Coverage C — Personal belongings

If your house is occupied by you as your principal or seasonal dwelling, Coverage C applies to your personal belongings or to the personal belongings of others while in your possession, anywhere on your premises or while temporarily removed, provided these belongings are not covered by another insurance policy.

Personal belongings not covered

We do not insure loss or damage to:

1. Automobiles, motorized vehicles, trailers, drones and aircraft, or their parts and equipment, except as provided under Other Limits of coverage. This exclusion does not apply to household maintenance equipment such as lawn mowers and snow blowers, golf carts while in use on a golf course, watercraft, wheelchairs, bicycles, children's toys, personal transporters, scooters and power assisted bicycles which do not require a license to operate.
2. Sporting equipment where the loss or damage is due to its use.
3. Goods held for sale, product samples, business records, or related data.
4. Evidences of debt or title.
5. Cryptocurrency.
6. Personal belongings in any fairground or exhibition for the purpose of exhibition or sale.
7. Personal belongings while being repaired, refurbished, or otherwise worked upon, where the loss or damage results from such work.
8. Personal belongings ordinarily kept at other locations you own, rent, lease or occupy, except while you are attending school, college, or university on a full-time basis.
9. Personal belongings located in storage facilities for longer than 90 days or the expiry of the policy, whichever occurs first.
10. Personal belongings while rented or leased to others.
11. Personal belongings owned by your tenants, roomers, or boarders.

HOMEOWNER'S ENHANCED POLICY

DETAILS OF YOUR COVERAGE

12. Personal belongings illegally acquired, kept, transported, or lawfully seized, or repossessed.

Coverage D — Extra expenses after a loss

If you cannot live in your house as a result of an insured event, we will pay you for any one or a combination of:

- Your reasonable moving expenses and any increase in your usual household expenses;
- The fair rental value of the rented portion of your house.

By "fair rental value" we mean that if you currently rent or hold for rent a part of your house to a tenant, and you lose rental income because the house cannot be lived in by your tenants as a result of an insured event, coverage applies to your loss of net rental income until the house can be re-occupied. However, if you live in the house on a seasonal basis, then fair rental value coverage will apply for not more than 30 days per policy period.

Prohibited access

If access to your house is prohibited by order of a civil authority as a result of an insured event or threat of an insured event to neighbouring property, we will pay the resulting extra expenses after a loss, and the resulting loss of fair rental value but only up to the maximum amount provided under extra expenses after a loss.

By "civil authority", we mean any person authorized by government and acting under legislative authority with respect to the protection of persons and property in the event of an emergency.

Length of payments

Payments for extra expenses after a loss and fair rental value will continue until a reasonable length of time has passed to repair or rebuild your house, or for your household to become permanently settled elsewhere.

If you cannot live in your house as a result of an insured event, and if we consent to you rebuilding your house, you must submit building plans to the authority having jurisdiction within 6 months from the date of loss. Failure to do so within this timeframe will reduce the length of payments for extra expenses after a loss, including fair rental value, to a period of 12 months from the date of loss.

If access to your house is prohibited by order of a civil authority, payments for extra expense including fair rental value will be limited to a period not exceeding 30 days from the date of the order.

Conditions of your coverage

The conditions below are applicable to Section I – Property Coverage.

Use of premises

Your house must be used as your principal, secondary or seasonal dwelling.

We only permit the following incidental business uses of your premises:

- As a personal office;
- Rental of part of your house provided the house is occupied by you as your principal dwelling, and you have no more than 2 roomers or boarders;
- If your house is a multi-unit dwelling, no more than 2 additional units rented to not more than 1 household per unit;
- If your house is occupied by you seasonally, the occasional rental of your entire house, but for not more than 30 days per policy period.

Coverage does not apply to your premises personal belongings, or to any detached structure on your premises used for any purpose not outlined above, unless stated on your Policy Declaration Page(s).

Major Renovation

Unless the Major Renovation Permit is indicated on your Policy Declaration Page(s), there is no coverage under this policy during a major renovation if loss or damage is caused by:

- Vandalism;
- Malicious Acts;
- Glass breakage; or

HOMEOWNER'S ENHANCED POLICY

DETAILS OF YOUR COVERAGE

- Water damage.

By "major renovation" we mean the structural integrity of your house will be altered during the construction process by building an addition or extension, or occupants of the house will reside elsewhere while the house is under construction or renovation.

Vacant

There is no coverage under this policy when your house has, to your knowledge, been vacant for more than 30 consecutive days. By "vacant", we mean all residents have moved out of your house with no intent to return, or the house does not contain furnishings or household belongings sufficient to make it habitable.

If the occupancy is indicated as vacant on your Policy Declaration Page(s), the Vacancy Permit will apply, and it is understood that the house indicated on the Policy Declaration Page(s) may remain vacant for the policy term shown.

The addition of the Vacancy Permit indicates that you agree that your house will be under the supervision and care of a competent person during the term the house is vacant, and the doors and windows will be securely closed and locked, and all rubbish must be removed from the house; otherwise the Vacancy Permit will be null and void.

Even if your house has been vacant for less than 30 consecutive days or if the Vacancy Permit has been applied, there is no coverage for claims arising directly or indirectly from:

- Vandalism;
- Malicious acts;
- Glass breakage; or
- Water damage.

What is excluded?

Property excluded:

We do not insure loss or damage to:

1. Buildings or structures used in whole or in part for business or farming purposes. By "business use", we mean any continuous or regular activity for financial gain including a trade, profession, occupation, or agricultural/farming operations including hobby farms. However, we will allow you to keep sheep, goats, swine, poultry, or any other farm animals in a quantity permitted by local by-law or other laws provided your premises is not zoned for agricultural purposes by the authority having jurisdiction, and you do not earn any income from keeping the animals.
2. Retaining walls, unless the damage is caused by fire, lightning, impact by watercraft, land vehicle or aircraft, vandalism, and malicious acts.
3. Animals, birds, or fish where the damage is caused by theft, impact by a motorized vehicle or other object(s), illness, disease, or injury.
4. Solar panels and wind turbines used, in whole or in part, for the purposes of generating income.

Causes of loss excluded

We do not insure loss or damage caused directly or indirectly, in whole or in part by, or resulting from, contributed to, or aggravated by:

1. Flooding, which means:
 - Waves, tides, tidal waves, tidal waters or tsunami;
 - Escape of water from any natural or artificial body of water other than a swimming pool; or
 - Spray from any of these.
2. Waves, tidal waves, tsunami, high water, all whether driven by wind or not.
3. Ice or waterborne objects, all whether driven by wind or not.
4. The backing up or escape of water from a sewer, sump, interior floor drain, or septic tank.
5. Surface water and/or water below the surface of the ground, except from a swimming pool or public watermain, which exerts pressure on or comes through:
 - Sidewalks, driveways;
 - Foundations, walls, floors; or
 - Doors or windows.
6. Freezing, unless it happens within a portion of your house which is heated, and you have not been away from your house more than 14 consecutive days. If you are away from your house for more than 14 consecutive days, in order for coverage to apply, you must:
 - Have a person to enter the house periodically to ensure that heating is being maintained; or
 - Shut off the water supply and drain all pipes and appliances; or

HOMEOWNER'S ENHANCED POLICY

DETAILS OF YOUR COVERAGE

- Have your heating system connected to a heating alarm system, monitored twenty-four (24) hours per day by an alarm monitoring service.

This exclusion does not apply to any fire suppression system installed within your house.

7. Continuous or repeated seepage or leakage of water, including condensation.
8. Earthquake, snowslide, landslide, or any other earth movement. We will, however, cover ensuing loss or damage caused by fire or explosion.
9. Hail.
10. Theft or attempted theft by any tenant, roomer, boarder, or members of their household.
11. Intentional or criminal acts of:

- Anyone insured by this policy; or
- Other people at the direction of anyone insured by this policy.

If you neither agreed to nor took part in such intentional or criminal act, this exclusion does not apply to you.

12. Use of any part of your premises for the cultivation, harvesting, processing, manufacture, distribution, storage or sale of any illegal drug, narcotics, pharmaceuticals, or substance falling within the Cannabis Act or schedules to the Controlled Drugs and Substances Act or any successor legislation including but not limited to illegal cannabis plants and cannabis derivatives as defined in federal and provincial legislation.

This exclusion does not extend to cannabis plants grown legally for personal recreational use by you or your tenant, but only if the number of plants grown complies with limits set by applicable federal, provincial, or municipal legislation. However, if you exceed the number of cannabis plants allowed by such law or by-law, coverage under this policy is excluded even if you have grown the cannabis plants for personal medicinal use.

13. Alteration of your premises to facilitate activities excluded by the above exclusion 12, whether or not you had any prior knowledge of such activities.

14. Skunks, raccoons, birds, vermin, rodents, bats, and insects.

15. Any communicable disease.

16. Settling or expansion, contraction, moving, bulging, buckling, or cracking. We will, however, cover resulting damage to glass.

17. Rust or corrosion, wet or dry rot, fungi or spores, or contamination. By fungi or spores, we also mean any type of mould, yeast, mushroom, or mildew, and any substance, vapor or gas produced by, emitted from, or arising out of a fungi or spores.

18. Any nuclear incident as defined in the Nuclear Liability Act or any other law or statute, except for ensuing loss or damage directly from fire or explosion of natural, coal or manufactured gas.

19. Contamination by radioactive material.

20. War, invasion, act of foreign enemy, declared or undeclared hostilities, civil war, rebellion, revolution, insurrection, or military power.

21. Terrorism, meaning a loss or damage caused in whole or in part by terrorism or any activity or decision of a government agency or other entity to prevent, respond to, or terminate terrorism, regardless of any other cause or event that contributes simultaneously or in any sequence to the loss or damage. We will, however, cover ensuing loss or damage caused by fire or explosion.

By "terrorism" we mean, an ideologically motivated unlawful act or acts, including but not limited to the use of violence or force or threat of violence or force, committed by or on behalf of any group(s), organization(s) or government(s), for the purpose of influencing any government and/or instilling fear in the public or a section of the public.

Damage excluded

We do not insure you for:

1. Wear and tear, marring or scratching, deterioration, defect or mechanical breakdown, or the cost of repairing faulty workmanship.
2. Breakage of fragile or brittle belongings including but not limited to bric-a-brac, glassware, chinaware, collectables of any kind, fine arts, marbleware.
3. Costs to recover, gather, assemble, or recreate any data, meaning information or concepts in any form, however caused.
4. Items grown for commercial purposes.

Included additional coverages

Credit or debit card, forgery and counterfeit money coverage

We will pay up to $10,000 in total for any combination of the following coverages during your policy period regardless of the number of claims or the number of insureds sustaining loss:

- Your legal obligation to pay because of the theft or unauthorized use of your credit or debit card;
- Loss to you caused by forgery or alteration of cheques, drafts, or other negotiable instruments;
- Loss by your acceptance, in good faith, of counterfeit Canadian or United States paper currency.

There is no coverage:

- If the loss is caused by a resident of your house or by a person to whom you have entrusted your cards, cheques, drafts or negotiable instruments; or
- If you have not complied with all the terms and conditions under which your cards were issued.

No deductible will apply to this additional coverage.

HOMEOWNER'S ENHANCED POLICY

DETAILS OF YOUR COVERAGE

Fire department service charges

We will reimburse you for fire department charges up to $10,000 incurred when a fire department is called to your house to protect your property from an insured event. No deductible will apply to this additional coverage.

Green coverage enhancement

If the basis of settlement is Replacement Cost, we will pay up to $10,000 for increases in direct cost to repair or replace insured property damaged or destroyed by an insured event using "Environmentally Friendly Products" of your choice.

"Environmentally Friendly Products" mean any product meeting eco-labelling standards as defined by the International Organization for Standards (ISO) and bearing a label from any certifying body who's certification mark complies with the ISO standard.

Identity theft expenses

Provided you first became aware of your identity theft during your policy period, we will pay for the following identity theft expenses, up to a maximum of $10,000 in total regardless of the number of claims or insureds sustaining loss.

By identity theft, we mean a third party obtaining or possessing key pieces of information about your identity and knowingly using it, without your permission, with the intent of committing a crime.

Coverage is limited to the direct and reasonable costs associated with:

- Notarizing required fraud affidavits or similar documents;
- Correspondence, including certified mail and long distance calls, with government agencies, financial, and credit institutions;
- Lost wages as a result of time taken off work to correspond with the above parties, subject to a limit of $500 per week for net earnings, up to a maximum aggregate of $2,000;
- Loan application fees to re-apply for rejected loan(s) associated with the identity theft committed;
- The services performed by an organization hired by you to assist in addressing the effects of the identity theft;
- Legal fees incurred with prior notice given to us for:
 - Defense of lawsuits brought against you by merchants or collection agencies;
 - The removal of criminal or civil judgments wrongly entered against you; and
 - Challenging the accuracy of any of your information in a credit report.

We do not cover:

- A loss or damage already coverable under the Credit or Debit Card, Forgery and Counterfeit Money Coverage section of your policy; or
- Identity theft expenses arising out of your business pursuits.

Lock replacement

We will pay up to $500 to replace or re-key the locks on your house if the keys are stolen. No deductible will apply to this additional coverage.

Moving to a new residence

If you are moving to another location in Canada to be used as your principal dwelling, we insure your personal belongings while in transit to and at that other location. Your personal belongings will be insured for a maximum of 30 consecutive days, from the date the personal property is removed from the premises but not beyond the date this policy expires or is terminated.

Refrigerator and freezer food coverage

We will pay for a loss or damage to food while in a refrigerator or freezer located on your premises caused by interruption of electricity or by mechanical breakdown of the refrigerator or freezer.

We will not pay for:

- Spoilage resulting from accidental or deliberate disconnection of electricity;
- Improper wrapping, packing or handling of the food; or
- Natural spoilage of the food itself.

HOMEOWNER'S ENHANCED POLICY

DETAILS OF YOUR COVERAGE

Reward coverage

We will pay $1,000 for information which leads to a conviction for burglary, robbery, theft, or arson in connection with a loss to property that we insure. The limit itself will not be increased regardless of the number of persons providing information. No deductible will apply to this additional coverage.

Bare land condominium or strata loss assessment

If you are a bare land condominium unit or strata lot owner, the house and detached structures on your premises are included within the boundaries of your condominium unit or strata lot, defined as an area of land forming part of the property owned by the condominium corporation or strata corporation.

If you are the owner of a bare land condominium unit or strata lot, we will pay up to $25,000 in total of your share of a special assessment provided:

- the assessment is valid under the condominium corporation or strata corporation governing rules; and
- The assessment is made necessary by a direct loss we insure to collectively owned condominium corporation or strata corporation property.

We will not pay more than $5,000 for that part of the assessment made necessary by a deductible in the insurance policy of the condominium corporation or strata corporation.

Optional events coverages

Each of the coverages in this section of the policy only apply if purchased and shown on your Policy Declaration Page(s) and only up to the specific limit shown for each coverage.

The coverage provided is subject to the terms of your policy, except where specifically modified to differ.

Hail coverage

This extends your coverage to include loss or damage caused by hail.

Deductible

This coverage is subject to the deductible shown on your Policy Declaration Page(s) for this specific coverage.

Sewer backup coverage

This extends your coverage to include loss or damage caused by the backing up or escape of water from a sanitary sewer, sump, interior floor drain, or septic tank provided that flood or overland water has not also entered your house from another entry point. If flood water or overland water is found to have entered your house from another entry point, this optional events coverage does not apply.

Your coverage is also extended to include up to an additional $15,000 for loss or damage to a water service line located on the premises caused by a leak, break, tear, rupture, or collapse if you are responsible for the water service line's repair or replacement. This limit includes the cost of tear out and the cost of replanting or replacement of trees, plants, shrubs, and lawns to repair damage related to the water service line.

By water service line, we mean water piping that connects to a water supply; drain piping that drains water away from your premises; and water or steam piping connecting a heating system to your premises.

Deductible

This coverage is subject to the deductible shown on your Policy Declaration Page(s) for this specific coverage.

Overland water coverage

This extends your coverage to include loss or damage to your premises caused directly or indirectly by surface waters or ground waters entering your premises as a result of the sudden accumulation of rain, spring run-off, or overflow from freshwater lakes or rivers. This optional event coverage includes coverage for sewer backup only when it is concurrent to damage to your premises caused by a surface water event.

JTA82272065-0022172-01761

HOMEOWNER'S ENHANCED POLICY

DETAILS OF YOUR COVERAGE

Deductible

This coverage is subject to the deductible shown on your Policy Declaration Page(s) for this specific coverage.

Earthquake coverage

This extends your coverage to include loss or damage directly or indirectly caused by earthquake or earthquake shock, including any ensuing event otherwise insured herein; and including snowslide, landslide, or other earth movements occurring concurrently with and directly resulting from an earthquake shock.

Each loss caused by earthquake will constitute a single claim hereunder, provided that more than one earthquake shock occurring within any consecutive 168 hours during the term of this policy will be deemed a single earthquake. Notwithstanding the above, we will not be liable for any loss or damage caused by any earthquake shock occurring before this endorsement becomes effective nor for any loss or damage caused by an earthquake shock occurring after the expiration of this policy.

This extension does not cover loss or damage caused directly or indirectly by the flood of any nature, waves, tidal waves, tsunamis, high water, waterborne objects, or ice — whether or not caused by or attributable to earthquake.

This extension does cover loss or damage to insured property, caused by wind, hail, rain or snow entering a building through an opening in the roof and/or walls directly resulting from an earthquake.

Deductibles

This coverage is subject to the deductibles for your house, detached structures, and personal belongings as shown on your Policy Declaration Page(s) for this specific coverage.

Amounts of insurance

Your amounts of insurance for your house, detached structures, personal belongings, and extra expenses after a loss will be as shown on your Policy Declarations Page(s) for this specific coverage.

Each amount of insurance under this policy form is the most that we will pay under that coverage for all loss or damage arising out of one insured event. These amounts include the cost of removing debris from the premises if the loss was caused by an insured event.

Any payment for loss or damage will not reduce the amounts of insurance that are provided for by this policy.

Policy deductible

We will pay only the amount of loss or damage that we insure which exceeds the deductible amount stated on your Policy Declaration Page(s) with respect to any one loss, unless otherwise stated.

Deductible waiver

If an insured event exceeds $25,000 we will waive the deductible amount shown, except that this waiver of the deductible does not apply to loss or damage caused by or occurring after an earthquake, if earthquake coverage is included as an Optional Events Coverage.

Multiple deductibles applying to the same loss

In a single policy, if more than one deductible applies to an insured event only the highest of such deductibles will be required to be applied to the loss, subject to the loss or damage not being caused by or occurring after an earthquake, if earthquake coverage is included as an Optional Events Coverage.

Basis of claims payment

The following Basis of Claims Payment options are applicable to Section I – Property Coverages and any Optional Events Coverages as shown on your Policy Declarations Page(s).

Coverage A and B: house and detached structures

We will pay for insured loss or damage to your house and detached structures based on:

- A replacement cost basis; or
- An actual cash value basis, if you decide not to repair or replace the damaged or destroyed property.

Replacement cost basis

This basis of settlement will be the cost to repair or replace the lost or damaged property, whichever is less, with new materials of similar kind, quality, usefulness, and of the same size and occupancy, without any deduction for depreciation.

In addition, this also includes the additional cost for part of your house (excluding outdoor swimming pools and service lines) to be torn apart to repair the damage.

To qualify for a replacement cost basis of payment:

- You agree to insure the house to 100% of its replacement cost, which is determined by us.
- If replacement is not made on the same site, any increased cost caused by replacement at new premises is not covered.
- We will not pay more than the amount of the actual cost for repair or replacement, which is not limited by our calculated replacement cost unless a dollar limit is shown on your Policy Declarations Page(s).
- Repair or replacement must be made within 1 year from the date of the loss (unless otherwise agreed to by us in writing).
- With respect to log or stone construction, or houses with a Heritage designation, we reserve the right to only cover the cost of substitute comparable materials.

If you do not elect to exercise Replacement Cost Basis of Claim Payment or if any applicable condition above is breached, Actual Cash Value basis of claim settlement will apply.

Actual cash value basis

This basis of settlement will be the cost to repair or replace the lost or damaged property, whichever is less, with new materials of similar kind, quality, usefulness, and of the same size and occupancy, but with proper deduction for depreciation.

In determining the proper deduction for depreciation, we will consider:

- The condition of the property immediately before the loss or damage;

HOMEOWNER'S ENHANCED POLICY

DETAILS OF YOUR COVERAGE

- The use of the property;
- Its resale value; and
- Its normal life expectancy.

Coverage C: Personal Belongings

For electronic media we will pay the cost of reproduction from duplicates or from originals of the previous generation of the media. We will not pay the cost of gathering or assembling information or data for reproduction.

For records, including books of account, drawings, or card index systems, we will pay the cost of blank books, pages, cards, or other materials plus the cost of actually transcribing or copying the records.

For all other personal belongings, we will pay for insured loss or damage based on:

- A replacement cost basis; or
- An actual cash value basis, if you decide not to repair or replace the damaged or destroyed property. Additionally, personal belongings of the following category types will also be settled on an actual cash value basis:
 - Articles that cannot be replaced with new articles because of their inherent nature, including antiques, fine arts, paintings and statuary;
 - Articles for which their age or history substantially contributes to their value, such as memorabilia, souvenirs, and collector items;
 - Property that has not been maintained in good or workable condition;
 - Property that is no longer used for its original purpose or is obsolete.

Replacement cost basis

This basis of settlement will be the cost to repair or replace the lost or damaged property, whichever is less, with new materials of similar kind, quality, and usefulness, without any deduction for depreciation.

We will settle on the basis of replacement cost only if the property lost or damaged is repaired or replaced as soon as reasonably possible, but in no case more than 1 year after the date of the loss or damage. Otherwise, we will pay on the basis of actual cash value.

Actual cash value basis

This basis of settlement will be the cost to repair or replace the lost or damaged property, whichever is less, with new materials of similar kind, quality, and usefulness, but with proper deduction for depreciation.

In determining the proper deduction for depreciation, we will consider:

- The condition of the property immediately before the loss or damage;
- The use of the property and its obsolescence;
- Its resale value; and
- Its normal life expectancy.

Loss of part of a set or pair of belongings

In the case of loss or damage to any article(s), which are part of a set, the measure of loss of or damage to such article(s) will be a reasonable and fair proportion of the total value of the set, but in no event will loss or damage be construed to mean the total loss of the set.

Loss of parts of belongings

In the case of loss or damage to any part of the insured property, consisting, when complete for use, of several parts, we will not pay for more than the insured value of the part lost or damaged, including the cost of installation.

SECTION II — LIABILITY COVERAGE

The reference to a key term as indicated by quotation marks around the term will include a definition. For each reference to the key term within Section II — Liability and that same meaning will be applied.

This section of the policy deals with legal liabilities facing individuals. It begins with a description of the types of coverage available under this section:

- Coverage E — Personal Liability;
- Coverage F — No Fault Medical Benefit;

JTA8272065-00222176-01761

HOMEOWNER'S ENHANCED POLICY

DETAILS OF YOUR COVERAGE

- Coverage G — No Fault Property Damage; and
- Coverage H — No Fault Benefit for Residence Employee.

Each of these coverages apply up to the amount shown on your Policy Declarations Page(s).

This section concludes with a description of the type of events which, although legal liability may result, are not covered by this policy.

Coverage E — Personal liability

This coverage insures the following:

- Your legal liability, including while acting as a volunteer, to pay compensatory damages for "bodily injury" or "property damage" which occurs during the policy period anywhere in the world. By "bodily injury" we mean, any injury to a person's physical condition including pain, illness or resulting death. By "property damage", we mean physical damage to, loss of use of, or destruction of tangible property.
- The legal costs of defending any action or legal proceedings against you alleging such legal liability. We reserve the right to select legal counsel and to negotiate and settle any such action if we decide this would be appropriate.
- Premiums for appeal bonds required in any insured lawsuit involving you and bonds to release any property held as security, up to the amount on insurance, but we are not obligated to apply for or provide these bonds.
- Expenses which you incur for emergency medical treatment to others following an event insured by this policy.

If the location described on the Policy Declaration Pages is not occupied by you as your principal dwelling, Coverage E – Personal Liability coverage, will be limited to your liability arising out of your ownership, use, or occupancy of the premises. By "principal dwelling", we mean the home address the Named Insured registers with the Canada Revenue Agency.

Coverage F — No fault medical benefit

This coverage insures up to a limit of $5,000 for reasonable medical expenses that result exclusively from:

- Bodily injury that you unintentionally caused to another person anywhere in the world during the policy period; or
 - Bodily injury sustained by another person on your premises during the policy period.

The expenses must be payable within 365 days of the date when the bodily injury happened.

Coverage G — No fault property damage

This coverage insures up to a limit of $1,000 the replacement cost (as defined in Section I) of property of others. The cost must result exclusively from:

- Property damage that you unintentionally caused to another person's property anywhere in the world during the policy period; or
- property damage caused by a child 12 years old or younger, if you are the child's parent or guardian, to another person's property anywhere in the world during the policy period.

Coverage H — No fault benefit for residence employee

We offer to pay this benefit up to a limit of $20,000 to your residence employee if they are injured or die accidentally during the policy period while working for you if their work was in connection with the maintenance or use of the premises. We will agree to pay this benefit even if you are not legally liable.

This limit also includes the following costs incurred as a result of the employee's injury or death:

- Medical expenses your employee incurs.
- Costs of supplying or renewing artificial limbs or braces.
- Actual funeral expenses.

An employee who accepts this benefit must sign a release giving up any right to sue you, us, and any other insured, and if requested will submit to examination at our expense by medical doctors we select. The employee must also authorize us to obtain medical and other records.

We do not insure you for cost recoverable from other insurance plans or statutory schemes.

HOMEOWNER'S ENHANCED POLICY

DETAILS OF YOUR COVERAGE

What is excluded?

You are not insured for claims arising directly or indirectly from:

1. The ownership, operation, or use of a watercraft or any equipment designed for attachment to a watercraft including watercraft that is used for business or organized racing purposes. This exclusion does not apply to:
 - Watercraft to which insurance has been specifically extended on your Policy Declarations Page(s);
 - Watercraft that has been leased or borrowed;
 - Watercraft equipped where the combined power is less than 50 HP and length is less than 8 meters (26 feet).
1. The ownership, operation or use of motorized vehicles, trailers, drones and aircraft, or their equipment (except household maintenance equipment such as lawn mowers and snow blowers, wheelchairs, bicycles, children's toys, personal transporters, scooters and golf carts while in use on a golf course).
2. Your personal liability when you are a legal entity, except as your liability arises exclusively from your ownership, maintenance or use of the premises described on the Policy Declarations Page(s).
3. Your business or any business use of your premises except:
 - As specified in this policy or as declared on your Policy Declarations Page(s); or
 - The part-time business pursuits of an insured person under the age of 21 years.
4. Providing or failure to provide a professional service which includes services requiring specialized skill, training or qualifications in a profession regulated by custom or law. This exclusion applies even if such services are performed by a volunteer.
5. Any form of abuse, harassment or corporal or disciplinary actions or punishments, including the intentional or negligent failure to take steps to prevent these actions, by, at the direction of, or with the knowledge of any person insured by this policy.
6. Bodily injury to anyone living in your house.
7. Bodily injury or property damage caused by any intentional or criminal act or failure to act by:
 - Any person insured by this policy; or
 - Any other person at the direction of any person insured by this policy.
8. Bodily injury to an employee injured in the course of your business.
9. Property damage to property you own, rent, occupy, sell, give away, or abandon.
10. Property damage to property in your care, custody, or control.
11. Property damage to personal belongings or fixtures as a result of work done on them by you or anyone on your behalf.
12. Punitive damages or exemplary damages, meaning an amount that a court awards which is intended to be a punishment to you.
13. Your ownership of any premises not insured under this policy, except vacant land in Canada that you own or rent, other than farm land.
14. The erasure, destruction, corruption, misappropriation, misinterpretation of data, including the distribution or display of data in any form.
15. Use of any part of the premises for the cultivation, harvesting, processing, manufacture, distribution, storage or sale of any illegal drug, narcotics, pharmaceuticals, or substance falling within the Cannabis Act or schedules to the Controlled Drugs and Substances Act or any successor legislation including but not limited to illegal cannabis plants and cannabis derivatives as defined in federal and provincial legislation.
This exclusion does not extend to cannabis plants grown legally for personal recreational use by you or your tenant, but only if the number of plants grown complies with limits set by applicable federal, provincial, or municipal legislation. However, if you exceed the number of cannabis plants allowed by such law or by-law, coverage under this policy is excluded even if you have grown the cannabis plants for personal medicinal use.
16. Alteration of your premises to facilitate activities excluded by the above exclusion 16, whether or not you had any prior knowledge of such activities.
17. The transmission of communicable disease, however caused.
18. Any fungi, spores or bacteria, however caused, including any expenses incurred to assess or otherwise deal with or dispose of fungi, spores or bacteria. This exclusion applies regardless of any other contributing cause that contributes concurrently or in any sequence to the claim.
19. Nuclear incident as defined in the Nuclear Liability Act or any other nuclear liability act, law or statute, or any law amendatory thereof or nuclear explosion, except for ensuing loss or damage which results directly from fire, lightning or explosion of natural, coal or manufactured gas.
20. Contamination by radioactive material.
21. War, invasion, act of foreign enemy, declared or undeclared hostilities, civil war, rebellion, revolution, insurrection or military power.
22. Terrorism, by Terrorism we mean, an ideologically motivated unlawful act committed for the purpose of influencing any government and/or instilling fear in the public or a section of the public. This exclusion applies regardless of any other contributing or aggravating cause or event that contributes concurrently or in any sequence to the claim.

SECTION III – GENERAL CONDITIONS

The conditions below are applicable to both Section I — Property Coverage and Section II — Liability Coverage, unless otherwise stated. If you fail to comply with these conditions, we have the right to deny insurance coverage to you.

HOMEOWNER'S ENHANCED POLICY

DETAILS OF YOUR COVERAGE

After a loss

Unauthorized settlements

For a loss or damage insured under Section II, we will not indemnify you for any payment you make, any obligations you assume, or any expenses you incur without our express written authorization, other than first aid.

Notice to authorities

For loss or damage insured under Section I, you must give immediate notice of such loss or damage to law enforcement agencies if it is suspected to be, due to malicious acts, burglary, robbery, theft, or attempted theft.

Your cooperation and duties

If a loss, accident, or occurrence happens, you must promptly notify us. As part of your notification, you are required to provide us with:

- The timing, location, and circumstances of the loss;
- The contact information of all known witnesses and potential claimants.

You are also required to:

- Help us obtain witnesses, information, and evidence about the loss and cooperate with any legal action;
- Send us everything received in writing, including any and all legal documents, immediately upon acquiring them as they relate to the claim.

After submitting proof of loss

After sending us the Proof of Loss for a loss which may be insured under Section I, we may require each insured to:

- Submit to examination under oath;
- Provide us access to all documents in your possession or control related to the application of insurance;
- Provide us with all documentation in support of the Proof of Loss; and
- Permit extracts and copies of such documents to be made at a reasonable place and time designated by us.

Right of subrogation

If we make any payment or assume any liability under this policy then we will assume all your rights of recovery against any person.

We will be entitled to bring an action in your name to enforce such rights. We will have carriage and control of any such litigation, whether the action is commenced by us or you, until the litigation has been completed. You will cooperate fully with us and with any lawyer we appoint to bring such action in your name.

Where the net amount recovered after deducting the costs of recovery is not sufficient to provide a complete indemnity for the loss or damage suffered, the amount recovered will be divided between us and you in proportion to which the loss or damage has been borne by each.

Insurance under more than one policy

If you have other insurance or contracts containing indemnification clauses which apply to a loss or claim, or would have applied if this policy did not exist, our policy will be considered excess insurance and we will not pay any loss or claim until the amount of such other insurance is exhausted.

Termination

Declaration of Emergency

We will extend the expiry date of this policy if access to your residence described on the Policy Declaration Page(s) is prohibited by civil authority. This extension will apply until the prohibited access to your residence is no longer in effect plus an additional 30 days, but in no event shall the total term of this extension exceed 120 days from the expiry date of this policy.

Standard mortgage clause

This clause applies only if shown on your Policy Declaration Page(s). It is hereby provided and agreed that:

HOMEOWNER'S ENHANCED POLICY

DETAILS OF YOUR COVERAGE

Breach of conditions by mortgagor, owner, or occupant

This insurance and every documented renewal thereof, as to the interest of the mortgagee only therein, is and will be in force notwithstanding any act, neglect, omission or misrepresentation attributable to the mortgagor, owner or occupant of the property insured, including transfer of interest, any vacancy or non-occupancy, or the occupation of the property for purposes more hazardous than specified in the description of the risk;

Provided always that the Mortgagee will notify forthwith the Insurer (if known) of any vacancy or non-occupancy extending beyond thirty (30) consecutive days, or of any transfer of interest or increased hazard that will come to his knowledge; and that every increase of hazard (not permitted by the policy) will be paid for by the Mortgagee—on reasonable demand from the date such hazard existed, according to the established scale of rates for the acceptance of such increased hazard, during the continuance of this insurance

Whenever the insurer pays the Mortgagee any loss award under this policy and claims that, as to the Mortgagor or Owner, no liability therefore existed, it will be legally subrogated to all rights of the Mortgagee against the Insured; but any subrogation will be limited to the amount of such loss payment and will be subordinate and subject to the basic right of the Mortgagee to recover the full amount of its mortgage equity in priority to the Insurer; or the Insurer may at its option pay the Mortgagee all amounts due or to become due under the mortgage or on the security thereof, and will thereupon receive a full assignment and transfer of the mortgage together with all securities held as collateral to the mortgage debt.

Other insurance

If there be other valid and collectible insurance upon the property with loss payable to the Mortgagee, at law or in equity, then any amount payable thereunder will be taken into account in determining the amount payable to the Mortgagee.

Who may give proof of loss

In the absence of the Insured, or the inability, refusal or neglect of the Insured to give notice of loss or deliver the required Proof of Loss under the policy, then the Mortgagee may give the notice upon becoming aware of the loss and deliver as soon as practicable the Proof of Loss.

Termination

Applicable to all provinces in Canada except Quebec

The term of this mortgage clause coincides with the term of the policy; provided always that the Insurer reserves the right to cancel the policy as provided by Statutory provision but agrees that the Insurer will neither terminate nor alter the policy to the prejudice of the Mortgagee without the notice stipulated in such Statutory provision.

Applicable to the province of Quebec only

The term of this mortgage clause coincides with the term of the policy; provided always that the Insurer reserves the right to cancel the policy as provided by Articles 2477 and 2478 of the Civil Code of Quebec, but agrees that the Insurer will neither terminate nor alter the policy to the prejudice of the Mortgagee without fifteen days' notice to the Mortgagee by registered letter.

Foreclosure

Should title or ownership to said property become vested in the Mortgagee and/or assigns as owners or purchaser under foreclosure, or otherwise, this insurance will continue until expiry or cancellation for the benefit of the said Mortgagee and/or assigns.

Subject to the terms of this mortgage clause (and these will supersede any policy provisions in conflict therewith, but only as to the interest of the mortgagee), loss under this policy is made payable to the Mortgagee.

In Witness Whereof, the Insurer has executed this policy as evidenced by the signature of the authorized representative of the Insurer.

The Coverage provided by the Policy is subject to the Statutory Conditions and/or Conditions of the Policy and Variations in Conditions of the province in which the subject matter of this Insurance is located.

(Where mortgage interest is on building(s) only, the standard mortgage clause printed above is applicable unless special mortgage clause attached)

Subject nevertheless to the conditions endorsed hereon and all the terms of this Policy.

JTA8272085-0022180-01761

ABOVE & BEYOND BUNDLE DETAILS OF YOUR COVERAGE

If the Above & Beyond Bundle is listed on your Policy Declarations Page(s) this extends your coverage to include:

INCREASED SPECIAL LIMITS FOR PERSONAL BELONGINGS

The limit for your personal belongings special items is amended to the amount shown on your Policy Declaration Page(s).

Watercraft, including their furnishings, accessories, equipment, and motors, are excluded from these amended limits.

DEDUCTIBLE WAIVER

We will waive the deductible amount shown on your Policy Declarations Page(s) if an insured loss or damage exceeds $10,000, unless the loss or damage is caused by or occurs after an earthquake.

BASIS OF CLAIM PAYMENT

We will pay for an insured loss or damage to your house, detached structures, and personal belongings on a replacement cost basis, even when you decide not to repair or replace the damaged or destroyed property.

All other terms and conditions of the policy to which this endorsement applies remain unchanged.
